Introduction

As it is the custom to have an introduction in New Lisbon Annuals, we would like to make ours brief and direct.

We seniors are leaving with memories we will revere long into the future. Memories of various activities and unplanned events that will remain and help us in our journey thru life. Occurrences that at the time of happening seemed insignificant and unimportant but we know later we will reminisce and spend many happy moments lost in our memories of our high school days.

It has been with a deep sense of gratification that we have had the pleasure of editing and publishing this 1958 Wa du Shuda. It is to serve as a written inscription of our four enjoyable years in New Lisbon High School.

Dedication

We the Seniors of 1958, dedicate this annual to Mr. Newman to show in a small way our appreciation for his help during our high school years. As Freshmen he helped us get set on the right paths of learning, as Sophomores he continued to guide us, as Juniors he helped us in the many activities we sponsored, and now in our senior year we realize what a help he has been to us.

We admire him for his versatility, his spontaneity, and we dedicate, as a token of our high esteem and appreciation, the 1958 Wa Du Shuda to Mr. Newman.

SENIORS

Honor Students

As the end of the seventh semester came to a close our two top students were very close. Marilyn Christmann and Katie Gobar are the two girls that deserve every bit of credit due them.

Four others who were behind them were Janet Granger, Eileen Ristow, Louise Regelin, and Harriet Cure.

All of these people are to be complimented on what they have done for our high school and themselves.

Seniors

Our high school days were started in "54". We were greeted by a remodeled school and the upperclassmen, of which some re willing and some not so willing to see us. We were initiated and thus classified as students of N.L. High. The rest of our year sed rather uneventfully. Our officers were Katie Gobar, President; Ruth Mortensen, Vice-President; Jeanette Robinson, treas-r; and Jerry Robinson, Secretary. Mrs. Gobar was our advisor.

Ahh, now is our chance to get even and to initiate the lucky Freshmen. After this, our year was very quiet, but we sure made way around. Our officers were: Marvin Lee, President; Harriet Cure, Vice-President; Carole Ulrich, Treasurer; and Eileen tow, Secretary. Mrs. Gobar was our class advisor.

Upper classmen!!! As we began our Junior year we started off with a bang by winning first prize for our Homecoming float. received our classrings just before Christmas and for the next few days we were busy comparing them with others. Queen Ro-le and King Wayne reigned over our Junior Prom on May 4, to the theme, "My Last Night In Rome." Our officers were: Tom- Bond, President; Wayne Olson, Vice-President; Judy Pitel, Treasurer; and Janet Granger, Secretary. Mr. Justensen was our iso:.

Seniors at last!!! Again we started out with a bang by winning first prize with our float for Homecoming. We received our Sen- pictures a few weeks before Christmas and were busy collecting pictures of our cute classmates. We combined the Christmas nce with the Senior Ball which we called the Christmas Ball. Queen Janet and King Gale reigned over the dance. We went to nneapolis on our class trip and attended the Ice Follies and Cinerama. Then finally came graduation, which we all were look- forward to for four years. Our officers were: Marvin Davis, President; Gale Bigalke, Vice-President; Mary Owens, Treasurer; Ruth Thompson, Secretary. Mr. Newman was our advisor.

After a three month "furlough," we came back ready for another year aboard the ship. We started off great by initiating the freshmen.

Three down, one to go! Queen Annette and King Bill reigned over the Prom May 3 to the theme, "Sail Along Silvery Moon." Our class captains are: Larry Stenholt, President; Alex Crary, Vice-President, Annette Henkel, Secretary; and Harley Hicks, Treasurer.
